

Announcement of a Public Hearing on the Draft Permanent Supportive Housing Plan for the District of Columbia

The Department of Human Services and the Interagency Council on Homelessness are sponsoring a public hearing on the District's draft Permanent Supportive Housing Plan on Tuesday, May 6th

10:00 am – Noon

at the

John A. Wilson Building
1350 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Mayor's Press Briefing Room, Ground Floor Room G-9

All members of the community are invited and encouraged to attend. Consumers and providers of services to those who are homeless are particularly encouraged to participate.

At the hearing there will be a presentation by Clarence Carter, the Director of the Department of Human Services, on the draft Permanent Supportive Housing Plan.

There will be adequate time reserved for public comment. Those attending will be able to express their ideas about this initiative and share their views with a range of stakeholders.

Copies of the draft Plan will be available at this meeting, or can be obtained in advance by calling 202.772.4312 or by going to the ICH's temporary website at <http://ich.dc.gov/ich/site/default.asp>, and under the heading "ICH Documents" choosing the "Permanent Supportive Housing" link.

This meeting site is accessible to those with mobility impairments. If you need an accommodation, please contact Nakia Edelin at 202.772.4312, or Nakia.Edelin@CatholicCharitiesdc.org
